Subject: yr father bank account?

ASA sister Mehrunnissa

On enquiring with the HSBC bank (where yr father had account) I believe the bank account is closed & cannot be activated so depositing the amount in this account is of no use. Moreover they also said that the amount cannot be repatriated out of India as per Indian norms from this account & if u also open any new account u cannot repatriate out of India. Well, I can send u the amount thru my bank account as I've informed u earlier. About the letters sample u require ,it is very simple letter & as follows:- From Mrs. Mehrunnissa, USA.

To,
Abdul Majeed & A. Aziz Qader
Bangalore.
India.

Dear A. Majeed & A. Aziz Qader,
As you'll are aware that my father namely Noor Mohd. Lodhia has passed away on dated:- _____. As business could not be completed during his lifetime & since I am the legal heir & entity of my father you may send me the amount lying with you of my father to my bank account no. _____, bank name & routing no.
Yours Sincerely,

(The above is the format of yr letter)

Likewise u can send letters from your two brothers Yousuf & Razack. Before u send the letters in original please confirm on this & I'll talk to auditor & my brother & we'll go ahead.

Regards
aziz
